 - b. file a registration form as prescribed by the Committee; and
 - c. submit to the Party the registration fee (if any) in the amount prescribed by the Leadership Selection Committee.

75. An individual who is not a Member or Supporter but wishes to attend the Installation can do so by contacting the Leadership Selection Committee.

PART 6 LEADERSHIP CANDIDATES' FINANCES

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

76. The obligations of a Chief Financial Officer commence when the Prospective Candidate announces an intention to seek the leadership of the Party.
77. Upon becoming an Announced Candidate (even though that person is not yet an Accredited Candidate), the Announced Candidate shall appoint, in writing, a Chief Financial Officer and give notice of the appointment to the Co-Chairs of the Committee. If the Co-Chairs are not yet in place, notice shall be given to the Party President.
78. A Chief Financial Officer shall be a Member of the Party.
79. The appointment of a Chief Financial Officer and acceptance by them shall both be in writing and shall constitute part of the Candidate's nomination papers.
80. Upon appointment and acceptance, the Chief Financial Officer shall immediately contact the Co-Chairs of the Committee to obtain copies of the Rules and regulations with respect to leadership campaign financing and the roles and obligations of a Chief Financial Officer.
81. A Chief Financial Officer shall be responsible for supplying, from time to time, to the Committee, the Credentials Committee or any of its Sub-Committees, any reports or other communications that may be required by these Rules or the Constitution, including, but not limited to, reports concerning the compliance of the Accredited Candidate with the financial provisions set out in these Rules.
82. A Chief Financial Officer shall ensure that:
- proper records are kept of all money received, including the full name and residential or business address (a post office box is not acceptable) of each contributor together with the amount of the contribution;
 - contributions are placed in the appropriate depository;
 - proper records are kept of all expenses;
 - the financial statements as required by these rules together with the Auditor's report on them are filed with the Chief Electoral Officer in accordance with these Rules; and
 - contributions consisting of goods or services are valued and recorded in accordance with these rules.
83. A Chief Financial Officer may resign by sending a written notice to that effect to the Candidate who appointed them and to the Committee Co-Chairs.
84. Where the Chief Financial Officer ceases for any reason to hold the office as such the Candidate shall forthwith appoint another Chief Financial Officer, using Form D, and shall without delay give notice using Form E to the Chief Electoral Officer of the name and contact information of the new Chief Financial Officer who must also in writing accept such appointment.
- If a new Chief Financial Officer is not appointed within 72 hours, an Accredited Candidate and the Accredited Candidate's campaign are not able to solicit or accept any contributions until a new Chief Financial Officer is appointed.

CAMPAIGN ACCOUNT

85. As soon as possible after accepting the appointment, the Chief Financial Officer shall open an account at a chartered bank or credit union, at a branch located in the Province, on behalf of the Candidate into which all revenues and contributions must be deposited and from which all payments must be made. This shall be the campaign account.
86. The Chief Financial Officer, in accordance with the principles of openness and transparency, shall provide the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee, with respect to the campaign account:
- a. the name under which it has been opened;
 - b. the name of the financial institution where it has been opened;
 - c. the branch number of the financial institution where it has been opened;
 - d. the account number; and
 - e. the names of the signing authorities
87. none of which may thereafter be changed without first notifying the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee.
88. A Campaign Account shall only be used in accordance with the campaign finances as outlined in these Rules. Any monies deposited prior to a Candidate being accredited must be the Prospective Candidate's own resources, subject to the caps within Rule 107. Candidates are not to solicit or accept contributions until they are accredited.
89. No money shall be used for any purpose in any way related to the conduct or management of the Prospective Candidate or Accredited Candidate's campaign unless it has first been deposited into the campaign account.

FINANCIAL REPORTING

90. When the Prospective Candidate becomes an Accredited Candidate, the Chief Financial Officer shall provide to the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee the following:
- a. Within ten (10) days of the Candidate's receiving notification of accreditation, in the form provided, a report detailing any expenses and an accounting thereof incurred by the Accredited Candidate from the commencement of the election period as defined in these Rules up to the date of accreditation; and
 - b. Within ten (10) days of each month, a report detailing the expenses incurred, income and contributions received and an accounting therefore for the preceding month.
91. Within three months after a new Leader is declared, the Chief Financial Officer shall file a Final Financial Statement that:
- a. covers the complete Election Period as defined in these Rules;
 - b. shows all income and contributions received and expenses incurred for the Election Period;
 - c. addresses any liabilities or surplus outstanding at the time of filing, and;
 - d. includes an Auditor's Report, if required. The requirement to have an audit completed by an Announced Candidate, shall be prompted by any of the inclusive three events:
 - i. An Announced Candidate has spent in excess of $50,000 of campaign expenses within the Period defined in Rule 93, including cash expenditures and in-kind expenditures
 - ii. An Announced Candidate has requested an audit of the campaign expenses of another Announced Candidate. This will trigger an audit requirement for all Announced Candidates

- iii. A formal written request is made to the Election Committee by either the Executive of the PC Party of Newfoundland and Labrador, the Management Committee of the PC Party of Newfoundland and Labrador or the Caucus of the PC Party of Newfoundland and Labrador

92. If any liabilities or any surplus are shown to be outstanding on the Final Financial Statement submitted under Rule 91 then the Chief Financial Officer shall submit a Supplementary Financial Statement within three months after the submission of the Final Financial Statement and every three months after that until the liabilities have been repaid or the surplus has been remitted to the Party, to a maximum of 18 months from the submission of the Final Financial Statement.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

93. A Candidate shall not incur campaign expenses within the period from which these Rules were released publicly (August 19, 2021) to the end of the Election Period as outlined in Rule 43, which total more than $225,000.00 including cash expenditures and in-kind expenditures. For greater clarity, expenditures from March 31, 2021 to the date which these Rules were released publicly (August 19, 2021) will not be subject to the campaign spending limits, BUT ALL campaign expenses must still be disclosed.

94. Payments may be made with petty cash only if they have been approved by the Chief Financial Officer and are less than $50.00; however, they shall be documented with receipts and count toward expenses.

95. Campaign expenses, as defined in Rule 5(g), do not include:

- a. the deposit required to be paid by to become an Accredited Candidate in accordance with these Rules;
 - b. volunteer labour being services provided free of charge by
 - i. persons who are not self-employed, outside of their normal working hours, and
 - ii. services provided free of charge by self-employed persons, provided that they do not normally sell or otherwise charge for those services;
 - c. auditing, accounting and legal fees reasonably incurred for the purposes of complying with these Rules;
 - d. interest paid on loans, lines of credit, or advances of money;
 - e. any amounts assessed by the Committee in accordance with these Rules for a breach of these Rules; and
 - f. the personal expenses to a maximum of $15,000.00.
96. Personal Expenses are defined as the expenses incurred by a Candidate which are required to assist the Candidate in the performance of the functions necessary to seek the leadership of the Party; they are personal in nature and include:
- a. the Candidate's own food;
 - b. Candidate's lodging while travelling;
 - c. Candidate's personal transportation costs throughout the Province for the purpose of the election-related activity; and

- d. any other expenses which are of a personal nature and incurred by the Candidate, which would not have been incurred by the Candidate outside of the Leadership Selection Process.
- 97. Personal Expenses, as identified above, up to $15,000.00 will not be considered Campaign expenses and will not count towards the campaign cap of $225,000.00. However, these Personal Expenses will still be reported and recorded in the Final Financial Statement filed with the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee.
- 98. Personal Expenses of the nature explained above, which are in excess of $15,000.00, will be considered Campaign Expenses, and must be included in the monthly reports provided, and will be included in counting towards the cap of $225,000.00.
- 99. Every Accredited Candidate shall submit to their Chief Financial Officer a statement in writing setting forth all Personal Expenses as per Rules 95(f) and 96, paid or to be paid out, of the Candidate's own funds, together with all receipts, within 60 days after the date of a new Leader being declared. A sworn oath or affirmation shall be accompanied, attesting to the contents of this documentation.

CONTRIBUTIONS

- 100. Contributions to an Accredited Candidate and their campaign are not tax-deductible, and therefore tax receipts will not be issued.
- 101. The Chief Financial Officer, once appointed in accordance with Rule 77, shall receive all contributions to an Accredited Candidate.
- 102. Contributions cannot be solicited by any person unless, and until, they are acting on behalf of an Accredited Candidate.
- 103. No contribution shall be accepted by an Accredited Candidate otherwise than through their Chief Financial Officer or other persons registered, with the Chief Electoral Officer as authorized to accept contributions.
- 104. A Chief Financial Officer shall not receive an anonymous contribution in any amount and, if any anonymous contribution cannot be returned to the contributor, the Chief Financial Officer shall forthwith notify the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee of the remittance and remit the same to the Party.
- 105. Contributions shall be received, with receipts provided, through one of the following:
 - a. a cheque with the account name of the eligible contributor;
 - b. money order which includes the name of the eligible contributor;
 - c. bank draft, which includes the name of the eligible contributor;
 - d. electronic transfer from an account that has the name of the eligible contributor; or
 - e. cash contributions as long as the same does not exceed $100.00.
- 106. Subject to the provisions below, no individual or organization shall contribute directly or indirectly to an Accredited Candidate's campaign:
 - a. more than $10,000.00 in the aggregate or;
 - b. funds not beneficially belonging to the individual or organization or funds that have been given or furnished to that individual or organization by another individual or organization for the purpose of contributing those funds:

- i. unless the individual or organization to whom the funds beneficially belong is identified as the contributor; or
 - ii. unless the individual contributing the funds is the spouse of the person to whom the funds beneficially belong; and
 - c. following the Installation of a new Leader, unless the transfer of funds was initiated before the release of balloting results.
107. An Accredited Candidate and their immediate family or entities that they have a controlling interest in, may make contributions to be used for the Candidate's own leadership campaign and out of the Candidate's own funds that do not exceed $25,000.00.
108. For greater clarity, this $25,000.00 will be considered a direct contribution to the Candidate's campaign account and is not to be confused with the $15,000.00 of Personal Expenses that a Candidate may incur and pay for from their personal finances.
109. A list of contributions received by the Chief Financial Officer shall form part of the statements required to be provided by the Chief Financial Officer in accordance with Rule 91 or 92.
110. Where a district association or an affiliated association makes a payment to Accredited Candidate or the Accredited Candidate's spouse or dependent children, the President of the association making the payment shall:
- a. file a disclosure statement with the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub Committee indicating the name of the Accredited Candidate or the Accredited Candidate's spouse or dependent children; and
 - b. and the amount of the payment.
111. An Accredited Candidate may borrow money from a financial institution (i.e. a bank, trust company, or credit union). No Accredited Candidate shall receive any support in the form of a loan, guarantee or collateral security except from a financial institution or entity that would be entitled to make a loan. The borrower shall keep a record of the loan and its terms, including the name of any guarantor and report the recorded information to the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee. No Accredited Candidate shall receive any support in the form of a loan, guarantee, or security, except as provided in these Rules and said loan, guarantee, or security will count towards a Candidate's $25,000.00 personal contribution limit.
112. No person or entity shall guarantee or provide collateral security for a loan to an Accredited Candidate in an amount greater than $10,000.00. For greater clarity, the total of any contribution together with the value of any guarantee or collateral by any person or entity cannot exceed $10,000.00. Any loan guarantee that has been called by a financial institution will be deemed to be a contribution to the campaign by a guarantee.
113. Any Candidate loan, guarantee, or security must be reported to the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee at the time they are opened. Any loan, guarantee, or security guaranteed by a Candidate or individual to a campaign will be deemed to be a contribution in the amount that remains unpaid when the Final Financial Statement is submitted in accordance with Rule 91.

AUDITOR

114. Each Prospective Candidate, upon becoming an Announced Candidate, shall appoint an Auditor, in writing using the form provided, and give notice of the appointment to the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee. The Auditor shall consent to the appointment in writing using the form provided.

115. The appointment and consent of an Auditor shall constitute part of the Candidate's nomination papers.
116. An Auditor shall be a public accountant licensed in accordance with the CHARTERED PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANTS AND PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS ACT, SNL 2014, c. 10.1.
117. The obligations of an Auditor commence upon signature of an engagement letter.
118. If required, an Auditor shall examine the books, records, invoices, bank statements, and negotiated cheques of the Accredited Candidate or Prospective Candidate and perform such tests and verifications that the Auditor deems necessary to enable the completion of the report required by these Rules.
119. If required, an Auditor shall complete a report to the Chief Financial Officer stating whether, in the Auditor's opinion, the final report provided in accordance with the Rules presents fairly the financial transactions required to be detailed in accordance with these Rules.
120. If required, a report of an Auditor completed in accordance with the Rule above shall be attached to, and filed with, the Final Financial Statement of the Chief Financial Officer made in accordance with Rule 91.
121. The Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee may, in circumstances they deem appropriate, authorize a Chief Financial Officer to file a report made by an Auditor that is supplementary to a report completed in accordance with the two previous Rules.

POST-CAMPAIGN PROVISIONS

122. All surplus funds remaining in a campaign account, after all campaign expenses have been paid, shall be remitted to the Progressive Conservative Party of Newfoundland and Labrador. This remittance shall be received and filed with the Chair of the Financial Compliance Sub-Committee as soon as possible thereafter.
123. Any surplus that is shown in the Supplementary Financial Statement shall forthwith be remitted to the Party.
124. Where the Chief Financial Officer of an Accredited Candidate fails to comply with the initial and monthly reporting deadlines, a deduction will be made from the $10,000.00 deposit submitted with the Candidate's application.
125. Furthermore, should the deadline or requisite terms for the Final Financial Statement and/or Supplementary Financial Statement(s) not be met as specified by these Rules, then:
 - a. any remaining balance of the $10,000.00 deposit will be forfeited, and
 - b. the Accredited Candidate will not be eligible to run as a candidate in any election up to and including the next general election unless, prior to the same, the requisite outstanding terms for the financial reporting are rectified.
126. An Accredited Candidate shall be entitled, subject to any deductions and/or penalties assessed in accordance with these Rules, to a return of the $10,000.00 deposit required in accordance with Rule 45(f) when the Final Financial Statement and Supplementary Financial Statement(s) have been submitted to the Party.

127. The Final Financial Statement and Supplementary Financial Statement(s) shall be made available to the public for examination by the Party Chief Communications Officer.
128. Subsequent to receiving the Final Financial Statement and Supplementary Financial Statement(s) from all Accredited Candidates, the Party will make public the full list of contributions and contributors that each Accredited Candidate has received and reported.

PART 7 ALL-CANDIDATES FORUMS

129. The Policy and Debates Sub-Committee may organize one or more all-candidates forum(s) in consultation with the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee.
130. The purpose of an all-candidates forum is to ensure the widest possible exposure of accredited candidates to members and the general public while at the same time minimizing the burden placed on Accredited Candidates and each of their travel schedules. Only Accredited Candidates may participate in an all-candidates forum.
131. All Accredited Candidates must participate in all debates, discussions, and/or events organized or facilitated by the Committee or Sub-Committees.
132. The Committee shall, on the advice of the Policy and Debates Sub-Committee, make decisions necessary to govern an all-candidates forum including, but not limited to,
- a. the order of proceedings at and format of an all-candidates forum;
 - b. the order of speaking at an all-candidates forum;
 - c. the participation of audience members at an all-candidates forum;
 - d. displays of support for an Accredited Candidate at an all-candidates forum and events on behalf of an Accredited Candidate in connection with an all-candidates forum; and
 - e. any other arrangements necessary for the organization of an all-candidates forum.
133. Each all-candidates forum shall be presided over by the Chair of the Policy and Debates Sub-Committee or the Chair's designate.

PART 8 INSTALLATION AND CEREMONY PROCEEDINGS

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

134. Subject to Rules 135 and 136, the Committee shall prescribe a programme of events for the release of the voting results and the Installation of a new Leader, including the times and places at which those events shall occur.

LEADER INSTALLATION

135. The Committee shall prescribe/limit access to the Installation to:
- a. any Party Member or Supporter;
 - b. agents of Accredited Candidates;
 - c. representatives of the media; and
 - d. other persons as deemed appropriate by the Committee.

136. In accordance with Rule 135, the Committee shall implement a registration process and attendance limits for each category as listed.

INSTALLATION SITE FACILITIES

137. Except in accordance with these Rules, no space may be used, no sign, poster, banner or other promotional material placed, and no action or thing may be taken or done in relation to the Installation Site.

138. Despite Rule 179, on the day of the Installation, the Chair of the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee shall hear any complaints which may be made respecting issues related to the conduct of other Accredited Candidates, the campaigns of Accredited Candidates, campaign volunteers and/or workers, or the activities and logistics of the Installation Site and Installation Day, and make any decision that is reasonable in the circumstances and the same is not subject to Appeal. The Chair of the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee may consult with the Co-Chairs and/or the Chief Electoral Officer and/or any other neutral third party who may be relevant or whose assistance may be required in resolving the complaint.
139. The Committee shall, subject to these Rules, make such decisions as are necessary to govern:
- a. the allocation of office or other space, if any, for use by Accredited Candidates at the Installation Site, a satellite Installation Site and a secondary Installation Site;
 - b. the placement of signs, posters, banners and other promotions materials of Accredited Candidates at the Installation Site, a satellite Installation Site and a secondary Installation Site;
 - c. the designation of areas of the Installation Floor as areas for those who support each Accredited Candidate;
 - d. any other arrangement necessary for the proper organization and functioning of the Installation Site, a satellite Installation Site and a secondary Installation Site; and
 - e. the decoration of hotels and other venues outside of the Installation Site shall not be allocated and are always subject to any restrictions and Rules applied by the owners and operators of the hotels and venues.
140. Where choices for common facilities at the Installation Site are available, the selection of those facilities shall be determined by lot in a process supervised by the Chair of the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee.
141. The Chair of the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee shall endeavour, through meeting with representatives of the Accredited Candidates, to achieve a consensus regarding the shared use of facilities at the Installation Site.
142. Where a consensus cannot be achieved, decisions regarding the shared use of facilities at the Installation Site shall be decided by the Chair of the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee.
143. Space available for signage at the Installation Site shall be apportioned among the Accredited Candidates following discussions between the Accredited Candidates and the Candidate Liaison Sub-Committee.
144. The choice of Accredited Candidate locations on or near the Installation Floor shall be determined by lot in a process supervised by the Chair of the Candidate Liaison Sub Committee.
145. The space allocated to an Accredited Candidate in accordance with Rules 139 through 143 shall be available for the exclusive use of the Accredited Candidate.

HOSPITALITY SUITES

146. No Accredited Candidate shall host, organize, sponsor, offer or provide for social events or a hospitality suite:

- a. on a day in which an all-candidate forum is organized, before the all-candidate forum has ended; or
 - b. during any portion of the programme of events for the Leadership Installation Ceremony until the same has ended.
147. Nothing in this Part affects the ability of the Party and/or the Committee to operate a hospitality suite.

PART 9 VOTING RULES

148. Balloting and voting within the Leadership Selection Process shall be administered in accordance with this part under the supervision of the Chief Electoral Officer.
149. The Committee may, on the advice of the Chief Electoral Officer or on its own motion and subject to these Rules, make such additional decisions as are necessary to govern the conduct and administration of balloting.

MEMBERSHIP REGISTRY

150. The Committee shall have the absolute discretion to take whatever steps necessary to ensure the accuracy of the list of the Membership Registry.
151. Verification by the Committee of membership, eligibility to vote, and accuracy of information may take place at any time, and there is no obligation to notify a candidate of verification efforts.

VOTING

152. To participate in the Leadership Selection Process, all new Membership applications, new Supporter applications and Membership or Supporter renewals or revivals must be "IN EFFECT" by 5:00 pm on the date as prescribed in Rule 43.d. To render such Membership/Supporter status "IN EFFECT," the Membership Coordinator will require time to process the new Membership applications, new Supporter applications and Membership or Supporter renewals or revivals; HENCE for greater certainty new Membership applications, new Supporter applications and Membership or Supporter renewals or revivals must be received by the Membership Coordinator by 5:00 pm on the date as prescribed in Rule 43.b.
153. Should a Member or Supporter wish to appeal a decision made regarding their application, renewal, or revival, they must do so following the process and timelines as prescribed in Rule 179.b.
154. There shall be no proxy voting, and Members and Supporters shall cast only one vote in the Leadership Selection Process.
155. The names of the Accredited Candidates shall appear on the ballot in alphabetical order according to the first letter of the Accredited Candidate's surname. However, if more than one Candidate has the same surname, they will be listed by the first letter of their known name. Candidates will be listed without titles, credentials or professional designations.
156. The Committee, on the advice of the Chief Electoral Officer, may prescribe decisions relating to the voting, including, but not limited to, any matter not prescribed by these Rules, and, the appointment of scrutineers to represent the Accredited Candidates.
157. Votes shall be cast electronically, either by internet access (through a computer, smartphone, or similar device) or by telephone.

158. Each eligible voter shall record their vote in respect of the Provincial District with which they are affiliated, in accordance with the final Membership list.
159. The voting period shall begin at 12:00 am on date as prescribed in Rule 43.e and will end at 5:00 pm on the date as prescribed in Rule 43.f.
160. Votes shall be cast by a preferential ballot, in that each eligible voter shall be asked to rank the Accredited Candidates in order of preference, from number one (1) to such other number commensurate with the number of Candidates, so that each voter shall have ranked the Candidates in the order of their preference. There shall only be one PIN assigned to one eligible voter and accordingly, each voter may vote only once for the purpose of selecting and ranking the preferred Candidate.
161. A ballot is valid if at least one Accredited Candidate is selected.
162. All ballots must be cast by 5:00 pm on the date as prescribed in Rule 43.f.
163. It is the responsibility of each individual Member or Supporter to ensure that the Party has accurate contact information on file so that they can receive their PIN.
164. Only the eligible voter may secure and obtain their PIN. Accredited Candidates or anyone acting on their behalf are prohibited from taking steps to secure, obtain or assign the PIN of an eligible voter by any means, either directly or indirectly. Any such improper intervention by any Candidates or anyone acting on their behalf shall be deemed a violation of these Rules, subject to sanction as per Rule 126. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as precluding an eligible voter who requires the aid of another person for bona fide reasons to obtain the assistance of any other individual to secure and be assigned the eligible voter's PIN to cast their ballot on their behalf as set forth in these rules.
165. An eligible voter whose PIN has been lost may request a replacement from the Chief Electoral Officer or designate, who will make reasonable best efforts to issue that voter a replacement PIN if they are satisfied that doing so will not affect the integrity of the voting process. The original PIN will be null and void.
166. If an eligible voter, for any reason, after receiving a PIN is unable to vote during the Voting Period, no other person may use that PIN to cast a vote.
167. The failure of any individual voter to receive a PIN or request a replacement PIN as described in Rule 165 does not in any way affect the counting of the votes or the outcome of the Leadership Selection Process.
168. The Election Process shall be conducted on a One-Member, One-Vote Point System where:
- a. Each Electoral District is worth 100 points;
 - b. Candidates are assigned a point total based on their percentage of the vote in each Electoral District;
 - c. To win, a candidate must obtain a majority of points (at least 50.00001%) from across the Province; and
 - d. Balloting shall be conducted by Preferential Ballot (single transferable vote).
169. The total points received by each Candidate for each Electoral District shall be determined based upon the percentage vote that each Candidate receives from the valid ballots cast for that Electoral District (only valid ballots are counted towards calculating the percentage and points received).

170. The total points received by each Candidate for the 40 Electoral Districts shall be calculated and verified by the Chief Electoral Officer and verified by the Party's Auditor and reported to the Co-Chairs after the close of voting.
171. If one Candidate receives 50.00001% of the points or more, then that Candidate will be declared the Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party of Newfoundland and Labrador.
172. If no candidate receives 50.00001% of the points or more after the initial counting round, then the Second Counting Round will commence.
173. The Candidate who received the fewest points provincially in the Initial Counting Round will be dropped, and the second preference of those ballots will be reallocated to the remaining Candidates.
174. The counting round process will continue in the same manner until one Candidate receives 50.00001% of the points or more, with the Candidate receiving the lowest number of points being dropped off the ballot each Counting Round.
175. In the event of a tie for the last place on each ballot, the Chief Electoral Officer will look back to the first ballot, and the Accredited Candidate who had the highest number of points in the first round of counting will be ranked the highest in the tie. The Candidate who is dropped will be the one who had the lowest number of points, of the tied candidates, in the first round of counting.
176. In the event of a tie for the final ballot, the Chief Electoral Officer will look back to the first ballot, and the Accredited Candidate who had the highest number of points in the first round of counting will be elected Leader.
177. The vote, organized by the Chief Electoral Officer and verified by the Party's Auditor (of valid ballots and points received), is final and binding.

PART 10 APPEALS AND COMPLIANCE

APPEALS (GENERAL)

178. No appeal lies from a decision of the Co-Chairs.
179. Subject to, and except where otherwise stated in these Rules:
 - a. A decision of the Chief Electoral Officer, the Credentials Committee, or Appeals Sub-Committee is not appealable under these Rules;
 - b. However, a decision of all other Sub-Committees is appealable and must be submitted in writing to the Appeals Sub-Committee within 48 hours of the ruling.
180. The Appeals Sub-Committee may make any order within its jurisdiction, upon an appeal or application, necessary to give full effect to these Rules and to conduct an open, fair and equitable Leadership Selection Process.
181. Subject to these Rules, an appeal or a complaint alleging a breach of these Rules shall be filed by submitting the same to the Chief Communications Officer of the Party.
182. An appeal or complaint alleging a breach of these Rules that is filed with the Chief Communications Officer of the Party, as per Rule 181 above, if filed on behalf of an Accredited Candidate or an Accredited Candidate's campaign, shall be signed by the Accredited Candidate or the Accredited Candidate's Official Agent.
183. Decisions of the Appeals Sub-Committee or the Co-Chairs made in accordance with these Rules shall be given in or subsequently reduced to writing.

APPEALS (BALLOTING)

184. Any complaints or grievances arising with respect to the balloting process shall be determined by the Chief Electoral Officer. Such a determination made by the Chief Electoral Officer shall be final and binding, and there shall be no further appeal or review under these Rules.

COMPLIANCE

185. Any allegation of a breach of these Rules or that a Candidate is not in compliance with these Rules should be submitted to the Co-Chairs.
186. The Committee may, on the advice of a Sub-Committee or on its own motion, upon finding that an Accredited Candidate, an Accredited Candidate's Chief Financial Officer, or an Accredited Candidate's campaign has breached these Rules:
- a. issue a letter of caution to the Accredited Candidate;
 - b. publish particulars of the breach;
 - c. assess an amount of money to be paid by the Accredited Candidate;
 - d. disqualify the Accredited Candidate from further participation in the Leadership Selection Process or any aspect thereof;
 - e. if the Accredited Candidate has been selected as Leader of the Party, declare the Accredited Candidate's selection and the results of the Leadership Selection Process to be null and void; or
 - f. make such other decisions deemed appropriate in the circumstances.
187. An amount of money assessed by the Committee in accordance with Rules 124, 125, 126 or 186(c) shall be:
- a. deducted from the amount of the $10,000.00 deposit that would otherwise be refunded to the Accredited Candidate in accordance with Rule 45(f); or
 - b. where the deposit that would have been refunded to the Accredited Candidate in accordance with Rule 45(f) has been exhausted to satisfy deductions or penalties, the deduction or penalty shall be invoiced to the Accredited Candidate for payment, and it must be paid within five days of receipt of the invoice, a failure to do so constitutes a further breach of these Rules. Should the Accredited Candidate default in paying said invoice, the Accredited Candidate shall be disqualified, and any votes shall be deemed rejected.
188. Any Accredited Candidate who withdraws from the Leadership Selection Process in accordance with these Rules shall fulfill any obligation that the Accredited Candidate or the Accredited Candidate's Chief Financial Officer would otherwise have been required to fulfill but for the Accredited Candidate's withdrawal.

PART 11 GENERAL

189. In the event of a declared Federal or a Provincial State of Emergency, Public Health Emergency, or other such decrees that prohibits by law or regulation the actions and timelines contained in these Rules, the Executive Committee, in conjunction with the Committee shall have the authority to temporarily, for the duration of such Emergency, allow for alternate means of executing the leadership selection process. Approval of such changes shall require a majority vote of the Executive, in addition to the Committee.

190. An Announced or Accredited Candidate shall not use any logo or symbol of the Party.
191. An Announced or Accredited Candidate shall not use any website address which could be reasonably confused with a website operated by the Party.
192. Any discretionary authority conferred by these Rules shall be exercised reasonably and in the best interests of the Party.
193. The Committee may prescribe interpretation bulletins, from time to time, as may be deemed necessary to provide full effect to these Rules and to conduct an open, fair and equitable Leadership Selection Process.
194. Accredited Candidates are responsible for the actions of their campaign workers. All parties must respect the Party's Core Values and Mission Statement. Complaints about campaign team workers will be dealt with by the Chief Electoral Officer.
195. The listing of Accredited Candidates on the Party website will be in the order of appearance on the ballot (alphabetical by family name and then first initial). This listing will provide a link to the Candidate's website.
196. Each Accredited Candidate shall disclose to the Committee the address and host(s) of their website(s) as well as any other social media accounts they will be using, and the Accredited Candidate shall sign declarations that the Accredited Candidate's website and other social media outlets are the Accredited Candidate's views and do not necessarily represent the views of the Party and/or the Progressive Conservative caucus in its entirety (as a whole). There should be such a disclaimer reasonably visible on all Accredited Candidate's websites, social media sites and published material (literature).
197. All costs associated with web hosting, websites, social media and other electronic communications are considered expenses and must be reported.
198. The Party's various social media channels (YouTube, Twitter, Facebook, Tumblr, MailChimp etc.):
 - a. shall not talk about any particular leadership campaign on any channel or share any Accredited Candidate's Posts, Tweets, Videos, E-Newsletters or Comments; and
 - b. Shall continue to share MHA and Ministerial or Critic-related information. Information on our Party's Leadership Selection Process, voting, and Accredited Candidate profile information will be made available at the discretion of our Chief Electoral Officer and/or as prescribed by these Rules.

FOOTNOTES

¹ Rule 43.f. revised and published on February 09, 2022 due to typographical error. Previous version stated, "voting shall be open for a period of 10 consecutive days and close at 5:00 pm on the 10th day following the deadline for the approval of Membership/Supporter applications by the Membership Committee." The rule has been updated to reflect the correct voting end and subsequent Announcement and Installation date as outlined in Rules 43.a. to 43.g., which is the "30th day following the deadline for the approval of Membership/Supporter applications by the Membership Committee."

Part I: Candidate Questionnaire

The disclosure provided herein is for the exclusive use of the Progressive Conservative Party of Newfoundland and Labrador Leadership Candidate Accreditation Sub-Committee, and may be used to inform the assessment of your potential eligibility as a candidate in the Leadership Selection Process for the Progressive Conservative Party of Newfoundland and Labrador.

1. In accordance with the rules and regulations governing the Leadership Selection Process of the Progressive Conservative Party of Newfoundland and Labrador (the "Party"), a person wishing to stand for election as Leader of the Party must submit, with his or her application package, a candidate questionnaire accompanied by proof by affidavit that its contents are true.
2. The purpose of collecting the requested information is to ensure that information that may be embarrassing or prejudicial to the individual or the Party is disclosed prior to such an individual being approved to seek the leadership. In reviewing these forms, please reflect on whether there is anything in your background which could impact your ability to lead the party or govern the Province. Please also consider anything which may be embarrassing to you and your family should it become public throughout the course of a Leadership or General Election Campaign.
3. Where the space provided on this form is insufficient, please provide the complete information on an attached page and clearly reference the attachment in the original space provided.
4. Anyone who wishes to obtain additional information or seek clarification regarding the application should contact the Leadership Candidate Accreditation Sub-Committee.
5. An Applicant is required to inform the Leadership Candidate Accreditation Sub-Committee of any new facts or circumstances, which may, can, shall, or could potentially impact their Accreditation, their suitability as a Candidate for Leader of the Party, or the wellbeing of the Party.
6. An Applicant who provides false information, or omits information with the intent to mislead the members of the Party or the general public will be disqualified.
7. An Applicant is required to initial the bottom of all pages of this application and sign all pages where indicated.
8. This questionnaire must be submitted in a sealed envelope, bearing the Applicant's signature over the seal of the envelope, and be marked with the following words: "Confidential – Candidate Questionnaire"
9. The questionnaire will be held in strictest confidence and will be reviewed only by the Leadership Candidate Accreditation Sub-Committee. The Leadership Candidate Accreditation Sub-Committee may request a meeting with an Applicant for the purpose of reviewing whether the Applicant is eligible to stand for election as Leader.
